

FUN GAMES AND “FORT” NIGHT

AT THE LINCOLN PUBLIC LIBRARY!

Monday, May 12
from 6-8pm

Celebrate Screen-Free Week at the library!

Drop in anytime between 6-8pm

for a cozy evening of unplugged fun at the library!

Families are invited to build blanket forts, play board games, and snuggle up with a good book. Pajamas are encouraged—bring your clean sheets or blankets to create your forts! We'll provide a variety of games, but you're welcome to bring your favorites, along with a stuffed animal and a flashlight for extra coziness!
