Revolutionary War Writing: Cursive Workshop for Kids
Mondays 3/6, 3/13, 3/20
4-5pm

In this three week workshop, children in grades 4-6 will learn the different formations for lower- and uppercase cursive letters, practice writing a variety of words (including their names!), and look at historical documents from the Revolutionary War era. Participants are encouraged to register for all 3 sessions.

Abigail Adams: Presented by Sheryl Faye
Saturday, 3/8, 2-3pm

All ages are invited to Sheryl Faye's engaging portrayal of Abigail Adams, wife of second President John Adams and sister of Lincoln Minute Men Captain William Smith. Ms. Faye will portray Abigail as an adult and a child as she navigates life in colonial New England and stands up for the rights of women. All ages welcome. No registration necessary.

Fun and Games with Young Minutemen
Reenactors
Saturday, 4/5
2-3pm

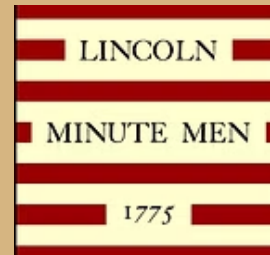

Celebrate Lincoln250 with young Minutemen reenactors to learn more about their role as well as what life was like for children during the American Revolution. Learn some 18th Century games and get a chance to play! There will also be a reading of The Midnight Ride of Paul Revere. Intended for ages 5 and up. No registration necessary.

Phillis Wheatley
Book Discussion
Thursday, 4/10
6-7pm

Join Children's Librarian, Debbie, for a discussion and celebration of the poet Phillis Wheatley. Copies of the book will be available at the Children's Desk. This event is for kids grades 3-5 and their families. Light refreshments will be served. Registration required.

American Revolution Role Playing Adventure
Tuesday, 3/15, 2-4pm

Play through an American Revolution adventure based on real events (specifically Henry Knox's retrieval of the cannons from Ticonderoga) while using the rules and conventions of Dungeons & Dragons. Will the dice rolls change history? We'll see! No previous knowledge of Dungeons & Dragons. Interest in American History is preferred. For Grades 6+. Registration is required.
